WEATHER OF CONCERN

Northern California

- Red Flag Warning is in effect late today through Friday morning for portions of the Sacramento Valley, the northern Coastal Range, the west slopes of the northern Sierra Nevada and adjacent foothills, and much of Shasta County.
  - North to east wind 10 to 20 mph with local gusts 30 to 35 mph; local gusts up to 45 mph over exposed ridges.
  - Overnight recoveries of only 15 to 25 percent across upper slopes and ridges, with 50 to 70 percent recoveries along valley bottoms.
  - Any fires that develop will likely spread rapidly
- Red Flag Warning in effect from noon to Friday night for Kern County mountains and the Sequoia National Forest in Tulare County.

Southern California

- High Wind Warning in effect from Thursday morning to Friday night for portions of Riverside, San Bernardino, and Orange Counties.
  - Strong northeast winds of 20 to 30 mph with gusts to 65 mph will surface in the San Bernardino Mountains and passes, the Inland Empire, and most of Orange County.
  - The strongest winds will be in the Santa Ana Mountains and Foothills at Fremont Canyon and Pleasants Peak where gusts to 65 mph are possible.
- Red Flag Warnings are in effect this morning to Friday night for portions of Los Angeles, Ventura, San Bernardino, Orange, Riverside and San Diego Counties.
- Gusty Santa Ana winds will be possible today into the weekend, bringing warmer and drier conditions to most areas.
  - A weak to moderate Santa Ana wind event is still on target today through Saturday time range, focused over much of Los Angeles and Ventura Counties.
  - Some uncertainty remains as to how strong the winds today and Saturday. Friday still looks like the peak, gusts in the 35 to 50 mph range are expected.

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

- High pressure will continue to dominate our weather into the foreseeable future. A few weak weather systems will occasionally weaken the high as they pass by to the north of us.
- Low afternoon RH (5-15%) and poor overnight recovery (less than 25%, some less than 15%) will continue into Saturday at least. Windy areas will be the driest.
- Gusty N to NE winds will return later tonight and last into very early Friday. Peak gusts of 25-40 mph are expected.
- Combination of dry, windy conditions is generating High Risk of Significant Fires today into Friday morning for these areas Sacramento Valley/Foothills, Mid Coast to Mendocino, western slopes of Northern Sierra, and both Bay Area areas.
- Very Low RH will be more common upper elevations and windy areas, even for some locations outside the High Risk designations.
- Afternoon temperatures will generally be 5-10 degrees above seasonal normals with our warmest inland areas mostly in the mid 70s.
- No rain expected in the North Ops region over the next 7 days at this time.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

- A weak ridge of high pressure will remain off the California Coast through this weekend. This ridge will move inland and strengthen early next week.
- Maximum temperatures will be near normal across most of the region through this weekend, with mid 50s to mid 60s across the mountains and 70s to low 80s in the valleys. However, temperatures will be around 10 degrees above normal across the coastal areas starting today.
- Temperatures will become above normal across the region early next week.
- Northeast winds of 20 to 30 mph with gusts to 50 mph will surface across the mountains and below the canyons and passes of Southern California Thursday morning through Friday afternoon and once again Sunday morning through Monday afternoon.
- Minimum humidity will be mainly in the single digits and nighttime humidity will be poor today through early next week.

Cal OES LAW ENFORCEMENT MISSIONS

Ongoing Cal OES Law Missions

- 2018-LAW-52736, 11/05/18, 1600 hours: The Sacramento Police Department requested a Human Remains Detection HRD canine for a law enforcement sensitive homicide investigation at an undisclosed location in the City of Sacramento. The Cal OES Law Enforcement Branch (LEB) Canine Coordinator is coordinating the request. Mission Ongoing.
- 2018-LAW-52710, 11/03/18, 0830 hours: The Ventura County Behavioral Health Agency experienced an immediate need to temporarily house 41 special needs clients due to the contamination at one of their facilities. The County of Ventura requested to utilize the Ventura California National Guard (CNG) Armory for shelter for a period of 7 days. The California Department of Social Services, California Department of Public Health, CNG, Cal OES, Ventura County Public Health, OES, and EMSA, collaborated to assess and determine appropriate facilities to meet the needs of the clients. After doing so, and exhausting multiple alternatives, the Ventura CNG Armory was deemed suitable. Cal OES Law Branch, in consultation and concurrence with the California Military Department, approved the use of the Ventura CNG armory for a period of 7 days. Mission Ongoing.
